

You may be dressed everso cheaply if you have on a nice wrap you look nice, and vice versa. you may be

Lensburgh & Bro.

ever so elegantly, if you have a wrap that is not fashionable you don't look dressed. Nice Garments here as low as $5,00

Silk Lined Ones for .........$13.25

THIS WRAPPER, $1.68.

French flannellette in a beautiful shade of garnet and the new Persian designs. Separate body lining to the waist. Two rows of novelty braid forming pointed yoke front and back. Full front with wide girdle, princess back, new style sleeve with cuff, neat 2 turnover collar, extra width skirt and fifty-nine inches long, deep hem, all sizes. Special $1.68.

Open until 9 o'clock Saturday night

anshindred Bro

420, 422, 424, 426 7th St.

You Can't Dodge This!

Facts are the stubbornest things in the world—if you try to push them aside—they come back again—and stare you in the face. Now, bere's what we're talking about—Christmas is in plain SIGHT—it happens on the 25th of this month as usual. You know what it means—PRESENTS!

Look Out!

Keep a t glathold on your money— there'll be SOME things that you'll need it for. But we want you to start RIGHT this year. The nicest gifts— the sensible ones—the ones that will be appreciated MOST—can be bought here—and you can pay for them—little by little—weekly or monthly.

Reception Chairs. Banquet Lamps. Ladies' Writing Desks. Ladies' Dressing Tables. Reclining Chairs. Bookcases, etc.

Carpets Made, Laid and Lined Free. No charge for waste in matching

GROGAN'S

Nammoth Credit House,

(17, 819, 621, 823 7th St. M. W.,

DIED.

DIED.

18LO XTON—On Wednesday, December 2, 1896, at 4 o'clock p. m., at the residence of her son-in-law, W. T. Levi, 1952 Second street northwest, Mrs. Susan A. Boxton, aged eighty years.

Her remains will be interred in Spottsylvania county, Va., on Saturday, December 5, 1896.

TAYLOR—10 p. m., December 3, 1896, Francis R., son of Richard and Emma Tay-lor, aged twenty-four years, five months and thirteen days. Futeral from his father's residence, No. 22 E street southwest, Sunday, 2 p. m.

eresanderesensen en el JUST THE THING!

THIS ONE, $2.

R. HARRIS & CO.,

MRS. HANNA MAY LEAD THE OFFICIAL SOCIETY

Personality of the Wife of the Re publican Field Marshal.

Unstinted Charity and Wide Hos pitality Are Her Chief Characteristics Three Children.

If Mark Hanna goes to Washington as Sec retary of the Treasury or of the Navy, or with any other portfolio that he may elect, the Hannas will be the leaders of the social season. Mrs. McKiniey is an in-valid. President McKiniey will have no desire for his family to shine in capital society. The Hannas are willing, able and well-fitted to sway. Mrs. Hanna and her two daughters,

Mrs. Hanna and her two mangaces, the hone companions of the man who led the sound-money forces to victory, live in a grand house on a promitory over-looking Lake Erie. It stands on the aristocratic thoroughfare of the West Side Within, this home is not gardy, but it is

Mr. and Mrs. Hanna have been enter-Mr. and Mrs. Hanna have been enter-tamers of national reputation, says a Cleve-and special to a New York paper this morning. Prominent Federal officials, gov-ernors of States, distinguished men and women of two continents had been their guests long before Mr. Hanna took an active part in politics. Mrs. Hanna has been a delightful hostess. Her charming personality has done much to increase the regularity and influence of her husband. personanty has done much to increase the popularity and influence of her husband. Mrs. Hanna is tall and deports herself regally. Her manners are charming and graceful; to all she is kind and courteous. She is generous in the extreme and a liberal donator to worthy institutions. She has donator to worthy institutions. She has often been called the best-dressed woman at social functions, on her last public appear-ance, at a church wedding, she wore a cos-tume of yellow brocade with jeweled gar-nitures and a superb diamond neckhace. She exercises extraordinary tastes in dress, although she shuns radical departures in

Mrs. Hanna was Augusta Rhodes before Mrs. Hanna was Augusta Rhodes before marriage. Her father, Daniel P. Rhodes, was the pioneer coal and from dealer of Cleveland. He was one of the first citizens. He died in 1872, leaving a large fortune. Mrs. Hanna's mother, Mrs. Sophia L. Rhodes, who still survives her hasband, was a Russell. She lives at No. 148 Franklin avenue. She is noted for her grace, unstituted charity, and wide hospitality. She has spent much time abroad.

Besides two daughters, Mr. and Mrs.

A Mass-Meeting

of Bargain offer-mgs at King's Palace—The Greatest Chak House in the city invites your inspection $8, $7, $6 and $5 Jackets and Capes, $3.98 Capes of Extra Fine Kersey, Poncie, Astrakhan and Beaver Cloths, in plain, jes, fur or braid trimmed, full sweep, some satin timed throughout... $28.98

$11,$10,$9, and $8 Jackets and Capes, $5.98 rlush Capes, Cloth Capes, and Cloth Jackels, in Astrakhan, Irish Frieze, Bucle, Kersey, Covert, Beaver and Chevron Cloths, plain or trimmed, some satin lined, a few tight-fitting effects. No one ever sold better goods for from $8 to $11....$5.98

$15,$14,$13 and $12 Jackets and Capes, $7.98

$20,$18,$16 and $15 Jackets and Capes, $9.98

KING'S PALACE,

812-814 SEVENTH ST. 715 Market Space.

Mrs. Frederick May Is a fine-looking,

Mrs. Frederick May 18 a me-looking, graceful woman, and since her widowhood several years ago has spent much time abroad. She is 'lark, tall, has a handsome figure and is quite brilliant in conversation. She has been a good deal in Hamburg and Paris, and at the latter place she met her betrothed. Both are of the Catholic faith Before leaving tomake her home in France. Beforeleaving tomake her home in France, which she did last Saturday, Mrs. May arwhich she did hast Saturday, Mrs. May ar-ranged for the sale of her household effects, including rare paintings, bric-a-bracand fur-niture in New York. She has spent several seasons in Washington, having a superb home in this city, and was much admired.

Mrs. Sternberg of Sixteenth street will give a luncheon today to meet Mrs. Neison A. Miles.

C. Whitney, of New York.

She is a cousin by marriage of Mrs. William

Another wedding of social importance,

Mrs. Mark A. Hanna.

Hanna have a son, Daniel Rhodes Hanna, who is married and lives on Euclid avenue. He is associated in business with his

The daughters, Miss Mabel and Ruth, The daughters, Miss Mabel and Ruth, are the constant companions of Mrs. Hanna. Mattel, the older, is quiet and unasyming. She is of the blonde type. She spends most of her time in the Hanna mansion, although she traveled extensively in California and on the coast last year. She was educated in Cleveland. Ruth, who is sixteen years old, is under the instruction of a private tutor. For Ruth, who is sixteen years oid, is under the instruction of a private tutor. For several months during the past summer she was ill and in care of a New York physician. She is better known to Cleve-and people than her sister. She is an excellent horsewoman. She is fond of riding behind a team of spirited steeds that were the citic of her father. that were the gift of her father.

Miss Pauline Emerson of New Jersey ave-Miss Pauline Emerson of New Jersey avenue held an informal reception yesterday afternoon from 5 to 7 to meet Miss Hilda Wynkoop of Richmond, who will spend a portion of the winter here.
Among the callers of the evening were
Miss Eleanor Brown, Miss Augusta Marvin,
Miss Julia Andrews, Mr. Horace Allen,
Mr. Gus Stevens, and Col. J. D. Marlowe.

Mrs. Shiras, wife of Justice Shiras, and her niece have gone to New York for a brief visit.

Mrs. F. G. Schutt, No. 1414 Thirtieth dreet, are entertaining Mrs. F. C. Roe and little son of Watkins, N. Y.

The Misses Small, of Columbia Heights, entertained the Fortnightly Card Club Monday evening, at their home on Roanoke Terrace. At the conclusion of the twelfth club the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Edward Room, Miss Talty, Mrs. Bryant and Mr. Powell and Mr. Stein.

Mr. Fowell and Mr. Stein.

Among the members present were Mrs.

J. H. Bryant, Mrs. Reid, of New York; Miss
Bryant, Miss Callaghan, Miss Husted, Miss
Talty, the Misses Small and Messrs. F.
W. Carlisle, W. Wallace, J. Simms, E.
Stein, E. Callaghan, Robert Husted and Dr.

Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Alden, of No. 211 Tenth street southwest, were honored with a surprise party on Friday evening last.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. Fowell, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Turner, Ar. Fowen, air. and airs. W. S. Turner, Mrs. L. Green and son Elliott, Miss Nei-lie Alden, Miss Ella Watson, Miss Georgia Simnell, Miss Dunn, the Misses Rencher, Miss Hazel Alden, and Messrs. E. Powel, J. Peol, R. Orson, Lr. A. Davis, B. Posey, F. Thornburg and H. Tule.

Mr. Raymond Hunt was given a sur Mr. Raymond Hunt was given a sur-prise birthday party Wednesday evening at his home on Thirty-second street extended. The evening was merrily spent in social pastimes, and dainty supper was served. Among those present were Miss Florence Weaver, Miss Mabel Barnes, Miss Lynch, Miss Hoffman, Mr. Ralph Weaver, Mr. Clyde Hunt, Mr. Joseph Freeman and Mr. and Mrs. Hunt.

Mr. David C. Hayle and Miss Florence Eagle, of Rockville, were married last night at the Methodist Elfscopal Church, South, of that place, by Rev. T. G. Nevitt.

Another interesting international mar-riage just about to take place in Paris is that of Mrs. Fred-crick May, see Coleman, formerly of California, and Coust Louis d'Andigue of anneanced for this month, is that of Miss Julia G. Scott, the daughter of Mrs. Mat-thew T. Scott, and niece of Vice President Stevenson, who will marry Mr. Carl Vrootnan, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Lewis L. Davis and Miss Cornelia Townsend, sisters of Ned Townsend, the author of "Chimmie Fadden," are stop-ping at the Strathmore Arms. Miss Town-send is a corn. send is a song composer, and during the last campaign wrote the official music for the Republican committee.

The Nameless Euchre Club met last night at the residence of Miss M. Gard-ner, No. 315 Third street southeast. At the close of the fourteenth game the tokens of victory were awarded to Miss Coleman and Mr. E. Herroll, and the booby prizes to Miss Llufrio and Mr. C. Riordan. During the evening informal refreshments were

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Austin of Delaware avenue returned yesterday from a six weeks' visit to relatives in western Illinois. Prof. and Mrs. Maurice Prancis Egar have established themselves in their new home, No. 201 Senton street, Eckington,

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Birney have is sued cards for a tea Thursday, becember 10, to present their daughter, Miss Mar garet.

Mrs. Belknap entertained at dinner last night the Misses Fauncefote, Horstman, Glover, Hare and Alice Belknap, and Count Galarza, Earl of Westmeath, J. B. Lippinphia: Mr. Reginald Tot and M. Paul Tibeault

RECEIVER AGAIN ASKED FOR. Addicks' Gas Company Once More Before the Court.

Wilmington, Del., Dec. 4.—Affother ap-plication for a receiver for the Bay State Gas Company was made here yesterday in the United States circuit court. The application was made by the Fidelity In-surance Trust and Safe Deposit Com-pany of Philadelphia, executor of the late Henry C. Gibson, of that city, whose es-tate is the holder of 2,259 shares of the capital stock of the Bay State Gas Com-pany.

The court granted the complainant permission to file a bill of complaint, and made a rule upon the company returnable on Tuesday, December 15, to show cause why it and its officers and agents should not be enjoined and restrained by injunction from making any further disposition of the from making any further disposition of the assets or effects of the company, until after the further order of the court. And also why a treceiver should not be appointed. A rule made returnable on Saturday next was also made upon the company to show cause why its books and papers should not be produced for examination by the complainant.

MEETINGS TO BE HELD.

A meeting of the Daughters' of the Ameri-can Revolution, Columbia Chapter, will be held in the red parlor of the Ebbitt House next Tuesday evening.

A business meeting of the Young People's Society of the First Congregational Church will be held in the Sunday-school room this evening.

Matchless clothing bargains at the New Fork Clothing House, 311 Seventh street.

From Midnight to Morning.

BUSY DAY FOR NOTARIES COATS, CAPES, SKIRTS and SILKWAISTS

The Merry Stamp of Their Scale Clicked All Day and Many Were the Methods by Which They Solicited Business-Supt. Wilson De lighted With His New Plan.

relieved of a Lumen of actor person vocations are midnight.

The intense cold Weather did not deter hundreds of vecerans from lorsaking warm beds and comfortable homes to pay a visit to the tin lox, whose gaping mouth invited the executed document which was later to bring to the pensioner his share of Uncle Sam's Lounty. of Uncle Sam's Lounty.

cheerfulness. They came on crutches and in wheeling chairs. Some had lost arms at the battle of Shiloh and others became

THAT PROSPECTIVE CHECK. Suffering had engraven itself deeply on the faces of man; but it had not obliterated a joyousness made more complete over the anticipation of the check to be invalid-locking man who, this morning, leaned on the arm of a stalwart son.

Every five minutes the porter visited the tin box and emptied it of its contents, while other porters brought every hour from the city postoffice vouchers which had been mailed from distant suburban points.

A colored man paraded the street with a condition size felling regulators.

A colored mail paraded the street with a sandwich sign telling pensioners that Xr. Blank would execute pension vouchers cheaply, promptly and correctly.

The notaries did a land office business. They did not sleep last night, but opened office at midnight and were still at the same old stand at daybreak.

The cold weather could not affect the heat generated by the continual friction of the notarial seal, and the coal men seriously thought of securing an injunction against the illegal use of seals for heating purposes advertised his business by means of a large campaign looking streamer attached to the side of his house. Another had carris dis-tributed to all passers by.

Supt. Wilson, of the agency, smiled se-renely this morning at the success of the scheme for an impartial distribution of pen-sions. He estimated that 2,000 vouchers had been put in the box between midnight and 8 o'clock this morning, and that 1,500 more would be received before 6 o'clock this evening.

She Would Be Free. A suit for divorce from a citizen of gas gene Victor Bourgeat. band left her in July, 1893, and returned where they resided with the bride's pa-rents. In July of the same year they went to New York, where a few daysafter-ward the Frenchman left his wife am sailed for Paris, where he has since re

COUNTRY GIRL'S SORROWS.

Among Sanitary Officer Frank's callers late yesterday afternoon was a young woman from Fairfax county, Va., who was weeping and despondent.

She carried an infant, about a year old n her arms, and said that another child in her arms, and said that another child would soon add to her burden in ife.

"Oh sir," she said pleadingly, "I am without money, homeor friends and I come to you for assistance. I want you to send my little one to an orphan asylum and give me admission to Columbia Female Hospital."

"Where is room bushes at "select the same the same than the same t

tary officer "I have never been married, sir."
She was sent to the Central Union Mission for food and lodgings and arrangements are being made today to place her n the hospital.

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 4 Health Officer Rhode has removed the quarantine from the home of Hon W. J. Bryan, his closest daughter, Ruth, having entirely recovered from the attack of diphtheria.

VETERANS GOT OUT EARLY

2.000 Pension Vouchers Filed

No touching the prices by any competitor in the city.

Nearly every pensioner of the District s familiar with the tin, lead-colored re ceptacle in front of the pension agency at Fourth and F streets northwest. Its work began last night at 12 o'clock and will continue until Lomorrow afternoon.

At S o'clock this morning the box was relieved of a Lurden of 12,000 pension youth-of Uncle Sam's Louncy.

There was no friction, no jarring, or crowding, although all scemed in a larry.

There were no rour fucies on the contrary, all were bright and gludsome.

Despite shattered limbs and ruined heath, the veterans were shining examples of the contraction.

at the battle of Shilon and others became blind in the Gettysburg conflict.

A cannon ball had taken away both legs of one soldier who still delights in wearing the blue, and a piece of shell had ploughed a furrow across the chest of an over the anticipation of the check to be received this evening.

There were young men, too, who patronized the tin box. They were sons and grandsons of those who perished in battle and prison or died later of wounds incerreed in line of duty. Widows and orphaned children smilingly jostical the scarred veteran and all exchanged good morning over the demure looking box on the corner.

the corner.

Inside the agency there was hurrying and rushing to and fro. Busy hands opened the vouchers and prepared them for final action. Others were addressing and stamping envelopes which were being filled with the bountiful checks.

NOTARIAL SEAL BUSY.

One notary across from the pension agency advertised his business by means of a large there would be received sener v 0 cmost this evening.

So far, he said, he had detected no fur-ther violations of the law against post-dating youthers, and believed that the no-taries were refraining from doing so.

EMILE WAS FAITHLESS.

He Married Marie in Gay Paree and

Paree was filed today by Judge Jere Wil-son, representing Bella May Bourgeat, who asks that she be separated from Emile Eu-She charges descrition and says her hus

The parties were married in Paris September 21, 1892, according to the French law, by the Maire de 4 Anondisement, Department de la Seine. In March, 1893, Mr and Mrs. Bourgest came to Washington,

She Came to This City for Shelter and Succor Denied at Her Home.

"Where is your husband?" asked the san

Ruth Bryan's Recovery.

Round Steak,

Sirlein Steak, Perterhouse,

Rib Roasts, -Chuck Roasts,

Pure Lard.

3 lbs for 25c

12c lb. 14c lb. 7c and 8c lb. - 714c lb.

Brine meats Best and fresh meats every day, Choice Potatoes 45 cents bushed Emrich Beef Co.'s Reliable Markets

MRS. OLIVE LOGAN WILL WINTER IN WASHINGTON

Famous Woman Journalist and Author Is af Strathmore Arms.

Her Early Efforts in Behalf of the Soldier and Her Niche in American History.

Mrs. Olive Logan has arrived in Washington, accompanied by her husband, who has legally assumed her name.

The fame of Olive Logan is a part of the country's annals, its bearer having been identified in the very earliest years of the war with all its patriotic movements. war with all its patriotic movements. Though exceedingly young at the time of the civil struggle she threw in her lot vigorously with all efforts that tended to the amelioration of the soldiers' condition in the condition of the soldiers' condition in those troubious times.

While she is the author of several books While she is the author of several books and plays, and has an extended fame as a lecturer and a dramatic artist, it is upon her achievement as a journalist that olive Logan mainly attributes whatever success may have been hers in life. It was as an American journalist that she was specially presented to the Empress Frederick, that distinguished royal lady having at the time made a complimentary reference to her appreciation of Mrs. Logan's writings. Time tries all, and of a necessity has whitened the locks which were formerly the inspiration of many a poet, but the matronly physique brought on by the advance of years has not impaired the nucleus. vance of years has not impaired the mel-low voice nor the sympathetic manner which won her hosts of friends in the long ago.

Mrs. Logan will spend the winter in Washington, and will, as is her custom when in the city, speak before the mem-bers of the Travel Club.

MUST HAVE MONEY.

Americans Should Take Capital if They Go to Brazil. Consul Matthews, stationed at Para, writes the Department of State that here is little or no chance for Americans in Brazil who have no capital. There are more ap-

Mrs. Olive Logan.

EISENMANN'S Gold standard

Elaborately Embroidered and

Jetted All-silk

Worth $12.00.

through, wide

$6.98

$5.00 Silk Waists, as stylish as bigher

priced goods, nice

Choice of $5.00 Cloth Capes, large variety of FREE OF CHARGE. That $6,000 stock of cleaks which we hought for $3,500 from the celebrated New York manufacturers is now the talk of the town. Every-body who inspected this stock couldn't help making a selection. It's the quality, workmanship and the richedous low prices which do the talking. We needn't do it.

Visit us tomorrow without fall.

The greatest feast of Cloak Bargains is awaiting you. $5.00 Jackets for $2.98. This Ladies' Chevron J. c.et, made in very latest style, new s'ceves, new collar, new back, Real value $5.00.

$6 and $7 Jackets for $3.98.

Misses $6 and $7 Jackets for $3.80

One lot of Misses' very stylish Jackets, silk lined; made of fine all wool Kersey or Houcle; for less than $6 and $7 else where; you can have them at.....

themat......$3.89 Children's $3 Recfers for $1.96 which we are offering at about their Value. We have just closed out 150 manufacturers' samples of Plush Capes, all roads of the very best seal plush, and finest workmanship. We bought them at nearly half price, and we offer them to you at nearly half price.

PLUSH CAPES

$8 and $10 Plush Capes

OUR PRICE $4.98.

Bon't forget about our Skirt and Waist Making Department with bes

stylish skirts for the price of ma-terial. MAKING FREE OF CHARGE, perca-line and bound with SPECIAL, 98 cents. $5 Seven-gore Silk Mo-hair Skirts for ... $2.98 $4 All-wool Boucle Skirt for ...

Silk Waists at Half Price.

One lot of Silk Waists worth $3.00, for ... $1.25 Silk Waistsworth $5.00st $2.49 Silk Waistsworth $7.00st $3.49 Silk Waistsworth $8.00st $3.49

SPECIAL 200 Long, Feather Boas, sold everywhere at 50c, for Saturday only . . . . 25c

Disenmanns

806 7th St. N. W. Branch-1924 and 1926 Pa. Ave.

Windom and Reflection "I thought Slumpsey was going to re-form after he got married?"
"He did intend to, but concluded the effect would be a reflection on his judg-

prices on

Any $15 CR . $16 Jacket in rough and smooth effect, all and half allk lined in Box

$1.98. $4.98.

CLARK'S, 734-736 7th.

Ounces

to the pound

STERN'S

Waists with yoke and full sleeves— 39e, 75c Flannel-ette Waists-59c.

$1,49 Plaid

81 25 98c $4.00 Dress Skirts ..... $ 15c Stik Handkerchiefs, silk 10c Cologne .....

10c Ammonia .. .

$1.25 Infants' Coats, 75c. Great bargains in Underwear for Ien, Ladies and Children.

10c Swan Down .. .. .. ..

5c Cold Cream Soap, 3 for ....

STERN'S pilcants than positions, salaries are small and living is most expensive. As to outdoor labor, no white American exposed to the burning suns and daily rains could hope to escape yellow fever and perhaps death. To deal in rubber requires large capital, and American rubber gath-erers would have but one chance in ten for life, for even among the natives the mortality is 50 per cent on some rivers, Marries Miss Vallie Kyte. Boston, Dec. 4 .- Miss S. Vaille Kyte of boson, Dec. 4.—anss S. Value Kyle of this city, and Mr. George W. Stosz, of Wash-ington, D. C., were married in this city last evening by the Rev. Joseph Kyle, of South Braintree, father of the bride. The groom is connected with the United States Geological Survey, and he resides at 1006. Flexenth, street, Washington, D. C.

WEDDED AT THE HUB.

Mr. Stose, of the Geological Survey,

Navigation Laws. Commissioner Chamberlain has called the attention of customs officers to the law which requires the withholding of enrollment and license to vessels proceed-ing coastwise with imported cargoes on

Washington, D. C.

B. B. Smoker.

1006 Eleventh street.

B. B. Smoker.

The smoker to be given under the auspices of the combined lodges of the B'mal Brith of the District of Columbia on Tuesday night next at the business Men's Club, No. 719 Sixth street, promises to be an event of more than ordinary prominence. Mr. Julius Strauss of Richmond, Va., the grand president of the order, will preside. The talent is of the best, consisting in part of Messrs. David Bangs, J. M. McLeod, Lee Baumgarten, Harry Wolf, S. Goldsmith, Arthur Middleton, Thomas Wilkinson, Percy Leach, Bob Dobbins, Madrid Mandolin Quartet, Montrose Club Hanlein's Orchestra, Becker Brothers, Frank Harrison and Willie Collier. The entire affair is under the supervision of the following committee: Imac Gans, chairman; Alexander Wolf, Samuel Gansa, N. S. Meyer, and M. Eiseman.

